MANY PERSONS DEFY THE LAW

Explosives sed in Different Sections of the City Last Night

GOVERNOR'S LETTEI

Mayor Fisher Sends Communication From His Excellency to the Chief of Police.

There has been a premature celebration of the Fourth of July in progress in Alexandria during the past three days, and in the night loud explosions are heard here and there. Some storekeepers, it is said, are selling fire works and explosives at pleasure, although against the law. Only one vendor, so far, has been made to face the Police Court and pay a fine, and but one person has been arraigned for using such dangerous playthings.

The following communications will explain themselves:

Office of the Mayor, July 2, 1919.
Chief Chas. T. Goods, Police Headquarters, Alexandria, Va.
Sir:

Your attention is called to the enclosed letter from the Federal Field Secretary with instructions to have the same enforced so far as possible.

THOMAS A. FISHER, Mayor.

Commonwealth of Virginia, July 1, 1919.
My Dear Mr. Mayor:

By direction of the Honorable Westmoreland Davis, Governor of Virginia, I take the liberty of urging you to enforce strictly any regulations at your command curtailing or preventing the use of fire crackers or fire works on July 4th. There may be some attempt this year to return to the old hazardous practices which were general of Independence Day, but such a return would very probably entail a considerable loss of life and property.

I presume that it is hardly necessary for me to call this matter to your attention, and I do so hesitatingly, but I know that you will agree with me that precautions at this time are eminently desirable.

Respectfully yours,
C. R. KEILEY,
Federal Field Secretary.

MAJOR PULMAN'S WARNING

"Be Ready for Anything," He Instructs Home Defense League of District of Columbia

"Be prepared for anything."

This warning was sounded last night by Major Pullman, superintendent of police, in giving precautions against "Red" outbreaks in this city on the Fourth of July to 250 members of the Home Defense League, assembled in the board room of the District building, Washington.

"Watch for the hand that rises to strike down men because they represent organized government—we know they are in our midst," he advised.

"While our attentions were centered on the Hun and his agents, the Bolshevist and anarchist have been working their insidious propaganda. Keep your heads, stay cool," was his final warning.

While denying reports that Washington had been marked as the center of radical activity on the Fourth of July, Major Pullman urged that every precaution be taken by the Home Defense men to prevent attempts on the lives of government officials during the parade and celebration.

Major Pullman stated that it was brought out at the recent conference of police officials of the country in New York that cirulars threatening serious disturbances on the Fourth had actually been circulated among the laboring classes in Detroit. He said that similar threats were being investigated in New York, Cleveland, Philadelphia and other cities.

HOG PRICES SOAR

Reaches $21.75 a Hundred Weight at Chicago

Chciago, July 2.—Hogs yesterday commanded the highest price ever known, $21.75 a hundred weight. The previous topmost July record was last year, $19.40. Today's strength in the hog market was ascribed chiefly to export demand for packing house products.

Before the United States entered the great war, $10.25 was the acme for hogs in July.

LABOR CRISIS IN EUROPE

Clemenceau Attacked for Failure to Deal With Workers

Paris, July 2.—Europe is athrob with the gravest labor crisis in the world's history.

From the Clyde to the Adriatic the dominant note in the wall of the masses over the high cost of living, which is much higher in Europe than in America now, because of our depreciated currency value. Groaning beneath inflated after the war prices the workers of Europe are making staggering demands for wage increases. At the same time they are out to get a shorter working day.

The intellectuals, the leaders of big business, are preoccupied with world problems that have inevitably come as the war's aftermath. But the masses are interested only in getting a better deal from capital and government.

The consequence is an enervating atmosphere of nervousness and irritation. Premier Clemenceau is being attacked daily. The Nationalist press accuses him of weakness in the councils of the Big Four and of exercising a more rigorous censorship than that of war times. The labor and Socialist press on the other hand denounce him for not dealing with the claims of the workers during one of the worst strike epidemics France has ever known.

TRAMP CAUSES FATAL WRECK

Cuts Off Flow Of Air While Stealing Ride and Trains Crash

11 PERSONS KILLED

Nineteen Severely Injured And A Score Less Seriously Hurt—Engineer Died at Post.

An unidentified tramp, killed in the New York Central Railroad wreck at Dunkirk yesterday morning, was, according to reports to the Railroad Administration, probably the cause of the tragedy. The mechanism controlling the flow of air from the locomotive to the brakes on the train, was found shut off, at the place where the tramp was riding.

The preliminary investigation has developed that on leaving the Buffalo yards the engineer of Train No. 7 tested his brakes three times and found them working, but had no further occasion to use them until running into Dunkirk, when he encountered a caution signal registered by No. 4 standing in Dunkirk Station. When he applied the air it acted on the locomotive and tender only and was not communicated to the cars following. The train crew states that the engineer whistled for hand brakes. but before they could be used No. 7 crashed into the standing No. 4.

As the wreckage was cleared, the crushed body of the tramp was found on the "head end," the narrow space between the tender and the first car of the train. The angle cock controling the flow of air through the brake pipes was closed. It probably never will be developed whether the man unwittingly closed it with his foot, as he used the cock as a step to lift himself up onto the car, or whether it was done intentionally.

Engineer Clifford, of the Westerner Express, tried, according to his dying statement, to avert the collision. The airbrake failed to work, the engineer declared. Witnesses said that the siren was still screeching for the hand brakes when the Westerner, going 50 miles an hour, plowed into the rear coach of number 41.

Clifford stuck to his post to the end. He was dying when his body was taken from the wreck of the engine. "The brakes wouldn't hold, they wouldn't, work, he gasped just before he died.

ANOTHER ROPE FOUND

Secnd Wife Murderer Discovered With Cord Woven From Sheet

Mineola, July 2.—Extra vigilance at the Nassau county jail since the suicide of Dr. Walter Keene Wilkins, who hanged himself Sunday night while awaiting sentence for the murder of his wife, Julia, resulted in the discovery of a rope woven from pieces of a bed sheet in the cell of Arthur Wooden, a negro, who also is charged with wife murder.

Sheriff Phineas Seaman immediately ordered a search of every cell in the jail, but no other instruments capable of use for self destruction were found.

Charles N. Wysong, Dr. Wilkins' counsel during his trial, received an anonymous communication yesterday purporting to have been written by "one of the three men who did the deed," which expressed the hope that Dr. Wilkins would be freed. Mr. Wysong said he believed the letter had been written by a crank.

Dr. Wilkins' defense at his trial was that the murder was committed by three burglars who were surprised while at work in the Wilkins' Long Beach home.

Lafeyette Chapter No. 5 of Washington, D. C., will visit Mt. Vernon Chapter No. 14 this evening, Wednesday, July 2, 1919. All members and visiting companions are cordially invited to be present.

LUNATIC SHOOTS TWO

Wanted to Wed Cousin, But is Already Married; Victims Likely to Die

Mt. Carmel, Pa., July 2.—During a fit of jealous insanity, yesterday afternoon, Julian Podetti shot his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Marinelli, 63 and 53 years old respectively, shooting them through the abdomen, causing probably fatal wounds.

After being captured the accused man admitted the shooting.

Podetti has been acting so strengely lately that it is thought that he is insane. He insisted that he wanted to wed Irene Zani, a cousin, and couldn't seem to comprehend when it was explained to him that he could not marry her because he is already married. He was in an ugly mood yesterday, and after opening the marriage question, got his gun and started to fire.

Irene Zan, the only eye witness, escapd by running when the gun was turned on her.

MORRIS GIVEN EIGHTEEN YEARS

Slayer of Magistrate Sullivan Glad to Escape Electric Chair

JURY SITS SIX HOURS

Five Sisters Weep When Verdict is Announced—Bitter Grief Causes Hush of Awe.

Charlottesville, Va., July 2,—Edgar Morris was given an 18-year sentence yesterday for killing Magistrate Bluford Sullivan. It was rumored some days ago that he would have been satisfied to accept a life term, so fearful was he of being sent to the electric chair.

Members of the ury, it is reported, did not reach an agreement until 1 o'clock yesterday morning, six hours after they were given the case. An hour after midnight they had practically decided on the maximum sentence under a second-degree verdict but two ballots were required after 10 o'clock yesterday morning before it was finally approved by all 12.

While Morris, who evidently considered himself lucky, never lost his smiling and self-composed attitude, it was different with his amazed and grief-stricken sisters, five in number, who were seated behind him in a mournful row. Sobs burst from them and their bitter grief caused a hush of awe and respect in the courtroom.

After the sentence was pronounced by Judge Fishburne, the prisoner held a brief reception on the court lawn, shaking hands with many of his relatives and friends. To one who expressed regret at the length of time he would have to spend in prison, Morris replied that he would be safe there and the Germans could not get him. By good behavior, the convicted youth who is in his twenty-second year, may return to his home within about 10 years on a conditional pardon.

EX-KAISER PAYS TAXES

Wilhelm Has Privilege of Great Common People For First Time in His Life

The former German Emperor for the first time in his life has paid taxes, the municipality of Amerongen having levied the ordinary taxation after examining and estimating William Hohenzollern's fortune.

For the first three months of this year the sum levied amounts to 12,000 guilders. (A guilder normally amounts to about 40 cents.) This sum, however, was merely for local taxation. An income tax will be levied separately by the Government.

The former Emperor was relieved from payment for the first period of his sojourn, as that fell within the previous year. All foreigners who remain three months in the country are liable for the payment of taxes the same as natives of Holland.

JUDGE'S RULING STIRS UP "DRYS"

Will Attempt to Force Congress to Define Intoxicants

ASK SPEEDY ACTION

Enforcement Bill, Which Will Confront Congress Next Week, Will Fix One-Half of One Per Cent as Limit

In holding that beer with 2 3-4 per cent. alcoholic content or less may be brewed and sold until the Supreme Court decides whether or not it is intoxicating, Judge John C. Rose, of Baltimore, has not only rendered a decision of nation-wide importance but he has brought the whole question of defining intoxicating beverages to a head in Congress.

This action by the court will result in an imperative demand on the part of dry leaders that Congress take the question of the definition of liquor out of the hands of the courts. Congress itself will be called upon by the prohibition forces to defeat such rulings as that of Judge Rose by declaring that any beverage containing more than one-half of 1 per cent. of alcohol an intoxicating beverage.

If this program is carried through. the limited prohibition which is now in effect will become bone-dry prohibition as long as the wartime measures remains in effect. All the resources of the dry element in Congress will be brought into play to make the enforcement bills now pending absolutely airtight. This became certain yesterday following the decision of Judge Rose.

The drys are the more concerned over the enforcement program for constitutional prohibition after January 16, it is true, but they are not disposed to look indifferently upon the action of the courts in deciding that no beverage with less than 2 3-4 per cent. of alcohol in it can be regarded as intoxicating. To allow that principle to stand would be dangerous, from a prohibition standpoint, and might defeat in a degree the movement which was consummated in the ratification of the amendment.

Therefore, the drys are prepared to drive their enforcement program through the House and Senate on the same general basis respecting both war-time and constitutional prohibition. The same definition that applies to intoxicating liquor in the one instance will apply in the other. But it remains to be seen first, if the necessary majority of votes can be secured to enact the pending legislation, and next, and whether or not the President will veto the bill if it is passed.

READY FOR BOMB WAR

New York, July 2.—The New York Police Department was placed on a war basis last night—ready to fight back if the Bolshevik, anarchists and other radicals start the bomb war, which Government Secret Service Service agents warned the country to be on the lookout for some time between July 1 and 7.

By order of Police Commissioner Enright, all public buildings and homes of prominent citizens and public officials are being guarded. Special guards were placed on bridges and other vital points also.

This extraordinary guard will be maintained at least until July 7 and longer if the Government thinks it worth while.

The original warning of Federal agents named July 4 as the most likely date of the opening of the reds' bomb war on Government. A number of Washington officials took the warning so seriously that they planned to be absent from their home a considerable part of the July 1 to 7 period.

LEE-PINCKNEY NUPTIALS

The marriage of Mrs. Gustavus M. Pinckney to Col. Robert E. Lee took place at noon today in Epiphany Church, Washington. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. S. Wallis, of the Theological Seminary, near this city, who is a life-long friend of the bridegroom's family. Col. Lee is the grandson and namesake of the famous Confederate general. He is the son of Mrs. Lee and the late Gen. W. H. F. Lee, of Fairfax county, and with his mother lives at Ravensworth, their estate in that county. Mrs. Pinckney was formerly Miss Middleton, of Charleston, S. C., but has for several seasons spent the winter in Washington.

After a reception at Rauscher's Mr. and Mrs. Lee started on a wedding trip.

GIRL SENDS YOUTH TO CHAIR

New York, July 2.—On testimony given relucatantly and with tears by his sweetheart, May Berry, seventeen, William Walters, nineteen, was found guilty of murder in the first degree by a jury before Judge Rosalsky in general sessions yesterday. He is charged with the death of Leo Ruben, a grocer, on March 20. He also planned a general jail delivery from the Tombs, assisted by the Berry girl. He will receive the death sentence next Tuesday.

Following his sweetheart's testimony, Walters' whole demeanor changed. He seemed broken in spirit and, like Gordon Fawcett Hamby, the Brooklyn bank robber, refused to permit counsel to make a defense in his behalf. The case was given to the jury at noon and a verdict was returned at the end of three hours' deliberation.

Miss Berry said on the stand that Walters confessed to her he had murdered Ruben because he had refused to give him money which he wanted to take the girl to a dance. She said Walters told her he did not intend to kill the grocer, but was compelled to because he put up a fight. Walters escaped after the murder and was captured three weeks later.

After he had been confined in the Tombs for a while, Miss Berry and Walter's sister, Margaret entered with him upon a plan to insure his escape and that of a number of other prisoners. Miss Berry admitted her part in the attempted jail delivery. She said she and Walter's sister "made love" to one of the trusties in the Tombs, who agreed to smuggle some hacksaws to Walters.

The saws were delivered to the trusty in a book by the two girls, but an attendant noticed that something was being passed and notified the warden. Both girls were arrested and the Walters girl was defiant, saying she would help her brother in any way she could. Miss Berry broke down and told what she knew of the plan. There were to have been several automobiles to take the escaped prisoners away had the scheme worked as expected.

POLICE COURT RECEIPTS

The receipts of the Police Court during the month of June totalled $844.50. This sum was exceeded during the early part of last fall, when $890 was collected in one month.

The report of Auditor Price, presented to the City Council last week, shows that $7,529.25 was collected during the year which closed May 31, 1919. This exceeded the receipts of any previous year.

This exhibit, however, does not mean that the present police department is more efficient than those of former years, but is due to prevailing conditions.

At present there is more money afloat than at any time in the history of the country, and parties having the misfortune to be arrested pay their fines in preference to being sent to jail or the workhouse. A few years ago most offenders were unable to pay fines assessed against them. It is not so now. White and colored alike can, and do, pay fines which it would have been impossible to collect a few years ago.

DERELICT HUSBANDS

A large percentage of the cases which are brought before Police Court of this city are of men charged with failing to support their wives. In some instances it is shown that the accused have deserted their life partners and removed to other places. The court invariably attempts to reconcile the parties, and when they give assurance that they will live together in future and that the husband will provide for the wife the case is dismissed or continued in order to see whether or not the party at fault will do his part.

In some cases the parties heed the warning and no farther "jars" are reported. In other instances, however, advantage is taken of the leniency shown, and the husbands go on from bad to worse.

On Monday a young man was arraigned at the instance of his young wife on the charge of desertion and non-support. He had married a young woman last September, and subsequently left his wife in this city to shift for herself. He was located in a town over a hundred miles from Alexandria and brought back. The wife in her testimony alleged her husband had virtually contributed nothing toward her support since last March, and, to her additional distress, had left the city.

The accused was held for the action of the grand jury, and it was announced that the more flagrant cases in future will be disposed of in the same manner.

SAFE AND SANE FOURTH

Among the cases before the Police Court Monday were those of two persons charged with violating the law in selling and exploding firecrackers. The explosives were not of the Chinese type of years ago, about the thickness of quills, and comparatively harmless, but of the thick and powerful type, said to contain dynamite in their composition, and liable to cause serious injury should one explode in the hand. The youth who used them was fined as was also the man who sold them.

Notwithstanding laws and warnings, many people still suppose Independence Day would be Hamlet without Hamlet if they were not allowed to use dangerous explosives in celebrating the anniversary of the birth of Liberty. A young man in Philadelphia while preparing a pistol Monday for the coming Fourth accidentally discharged the weapon, instantly killing his wife while she was nursing her infant child.

The Philadelphia Inquirer contains the following:

"Parents who think they have more children than necessary or that each child is too well blessed with fingers, eyes, etc., will pay no heed to the Mayor's proclamation and permit their children to use all dangerous fireworks in profusion. Others will see that their children have a safe and sane Fourth, with all possible joy and no injury.

"It is lamentable that for a long time this city has practically led the country in Fourth of July casualties. Almost evry year one or more children are killed and a hundred or more wounded. It is true that most of these burns are not serious, but some are very much so, with lasting results. It is much to be regretted that we have not a hard and fast law preventing the sale of fireworks for street explosion. Failing this, parents must use some judgment, not only in permitting their children to use fireworks, but in standing near those who are doing so."

SOME LAWS BREED ANARCHY

Gompers Says They Infringe Upon Liberty And Breed Revolution

"The growing tendency to enact legislation such as the prohibition amendment, the Anti-Sedition act, recently passed by the Pennsylvania Legislature, and other acts of a similar nature, which deprive the people of the rights and privileges to which they have always been accustomed, is breeding discontent throughout America and sowing the seeds of a revolution," said Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federaton of Labor, at a dinner given Saturday afternoon to the sponsoring party of the Afel, the official union labor ship, which was launched at Hog Island earlier in the day.

"I challenge any man in the country that sponsors laws that infringe upon the liberties of our people," continued the labor leader. "Just because certain individuals, greatly in the minority, abuse alcohol and misuse the rights of free speech, free assemblage and free press that is no reason why the milions of normal, liberty lovng citizens should be deprived of these privileges. The masses should not be made to suffer for the shortcomings of a few."

Continuing, the speaker said that labor would organize throughout the country in order that it might voice its protest against the suppression of the liberties of the people. He said it cannot help but arouse the antagonism of the people to find that now that the war is won they do not enjoy even as much liberty as they did before going through the toils and hardships of war.

Independence Day in 1919

You may feel, as so many others do, that the Fourth of July in 1919 has, and should have, a new significance. The Fathers of this nation fought a strong enemy that they might gain political freedom for themselves and their children's children.

The Sons of the nation have just been fighting that they might give political freedom to others.

The one thing we ought to be proudest of, and celebrate most enthusiastically, is not so much the freedom they have won for us and others, as the fact that they were willing to fight for it.

And we ought to pause long enough from noise, and games and gaiety, to resolve with some solemnity, that nothing we can do shall be left undone, to keep and perpetuate what has been gained.

For the Convenience of Our Customers We Will Be Open 1-2 Day, July 4.

That's one of the uses of such a holiday; we're all going to quit business and make it a day

INJURED AS BALLOON BURSTS.

Baltimore, July 2.—Seventy-five persons were injured, many of them burned, and dwellings within a radius of a mile were damaged yesterday afternoon when the navy dirigible C-8, en route from Cape May, N. J., to Washington, which had descended in an open field just outside of Camp Holabird, exploded, caught fire and was destroyed.

Hundreds of persons, among them many women and children, had gathered on the field to watch the activities attending the the landing of the large airship, which had descended in order that repairs might be made to the rudder. With a detonation that rocked the territory, flames suddenly shot forth in all directions.

It was explained by Lieut. M. N. Leonard, commander of the C-8, that the difference in temperature encountered in the air from that at the landing point was perhaps responsible for the expansion of gas.

The gas expanded with terrific force, bursting through the walls of the gas bag. The gas ignited, and before the several hundred spectators were able to dodge, the flames were upon them. Men, women and children rushed frantically out of the danger zone. Many were struck by flying metal from the burning airship.

Furniture in nearby homes was thrown about and windows were shattered. At one home the roof was badly damaged and the entire house ruined.

The crew of eight men escaped without injury. A few of them suffered a few minor injuries, but no medical attention was necessary.

"Along toward early autumn, after the tobacco crop had been cured, and packed away in the barns, the planters from up and down the river would foregather, usually at the Strobridge place, thence to set out on the first fox hunt of the season."

—Early Virginia, page 243.

Virginia-Carolina tobacco still holds the world's favor

WHEN, in 1587, the tobacco that we know as Virginia-Carolina tobacco was introduced into England, it quickly became "the rage". Since then it has gained steadily in popularity all over the world.

In 1918, in the United States alone, five times more Virginia-Carolina tobacco was smoked in cigarettes than all the foreign-grown tobaccos combined. That's because a cigarette of this sun-ripened home-grown tobacco has a crisp, lively relish that no cigarette of foreign or mixed tobaccos can match.

Piedmonts—made entirely of choicest Virginia-Carolina—will prove this to you.

The Virginia-Carolina Cigarette

Piedmont

NOTE—Virginia-Carolina tobacco is grown here in the U. S. A. Unlike foreign-grown tobaccos, it carries no Import duty. Import duty doesn't make a cigarette any better—it merely adds to its cost. Piedmonts give you better value because all your money buys tobacco quality.

To Our Patrons

Alexandria, Va., June 2, 1919.

In line with our progressive banking methods, and to meet the demands of our patrons, we are installing on July 1st, an up-to-date Safe Deposit Department, under the personal supervision of one of our officers.

This has been made necessary from the fact that a large number of our depositors owning Liberty Bonds and other securities desire a safe place for their keeping.

It is our plan to enlarge the number of Safe Deposit Boxes, and make a rental charge to meet the operating expenses of this Department. This charge will become effective July 1st, 1919, and a bill will be sent out at that time to the holders of boxes, and if any desire to make any change we will be glad to have them call before the bills are rendered for the ensuing year.
